

HIGH SCHOOL DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS

FRIDAY DECEMBER 6TH, 2019

The 9th grade boys basketball team dug themselves a hole in the early going of a hard fought contest on Thursday evening trailing the Wautoma Hornet's 3-11. The W-F offense ignited mid-way through the first half and Indians only trailed by one point at halftime 15-16. In the second half the Indians squashed the Hornets outscoring Wautoma 25-13. Excellent passing, good rebounding, and great free throw shooting were key components to the high quality play. Scoring came from many of the Indians Bryce Dittman had 9 points, Jordan Zastrow 8 points, Cooper Kester 7 points, Nick Huebner 6 points, Connor Delewiche 5 points, Kaden Baehman 3 points, Garrett Doede 2 points, and Dylan Anadell never missed a free throw. The final score was W-F 40 Wautoma 29. The Indians next game will be Tuesday Dec. 10th at PJ Jacobs Junior High in Stevens Point vs. SPASH 4pm afternoon tip.
