The JV2 / 9th grade boys basketball team bounced back after a disappointing loss on Friday with a 12 point victory over the Pacelli Cardinals last night. The Indians played a great first half building a 11 point lead making 3 of 4 free throws. In the second half the cardinals gave great effort and cut the lead to five points. The Tribe however had an answer to every cardinal run and came our victorious. The Indians were led in scoring by Jordan Zastrow with 11 points. Nick Huebner chipped in 10 points followed by 6 from Kaden Baehman, 4 from Garrett Doede, 2 from Dylan Andadell, and 5 apiece for Connor Delewiche, and Cooper Kester.

Next game is Thursday at home with a likely early tip time of 5:50pm.

Please show your spirit for FCCLA week this week and participate in the following dress up days: TOMORROW - Sports Day, & FRIDAY - Red Day!
