

HIGH SCHOOL DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS THURSDAY, JANUARY 14TH 2021

The WFHS High Quiz team took on the Tri-County Penguins yesterday in an intense battle of wits. B team's interim captain, Muluken Rucks led the B team to a 135 to 24 win by answering 5 questions. Doc Harley pitched in 4 correct answers, and Jaden Rice and Luke Ehrenberg contributed 2 correct answers a piece.

The A team took to the stage and won a nail biter of a match. Tri-County led the majority of the match, leaving W-F in the dust. In the last ten minutes of the game the W-F team swept Tri-County under the rug. Captain Jakob Mills answered five questions while freshmen Victor Kiedrowski scored three, and Matthew Zeichert scored two. The A team remains undefeated by winning their second match of the season 201 to 149. Good job team!

The team will defend their first place ranking when they host Amherst next Wednesday.

ATTENTION STUDENTS: Greater Than Us will be giving away salt buckets for the community. We need your help, please bring in your empty gallon ice cream pails with lids to the high school office by Thursday January 21st. Thank you!

Just a reminder students it is your responsibility to check your school email 8th hour to see if you are requested for ELT, if you are not requested you should report to your homebase. If you have a gold card you are only allowed to leave if you are not requested or failing a class.
